The Democratic National Committee assembled at Washington on the 8th January, and, with entire unanimity,

Resolved, That the Democratic National Conven tion of 1856 meet in the city of Cincinnati, at 12 o'clock, M., on the first Monday of June next. The Baltimore National Convention of 1852, a dopted the following resolution as to the number of

"Resolved, That, in constituting future national conventions of the Democratic party, in order to secure the respective rights of the States to their relative representation in such conventions, each State shall be entitled to twice the number of delegates that it has votes in the electoral college, and no more; and that the Democratic National Committee, in making arrangements for the next National Convention. provide such number of seats therein for each State. and secure the same to the delegates elect."

It is required, with a view to the proper arrangements of seats of members, that the delegates from the several States or districts of the United States to the next National Convention, forward to Hon. A. P. Edgerton, Hicksville, Ohio, chairman of the committee of arrangements, their respective names and post offices; and the Democratic papers throughout the United States are requested to copy this call and the proceedings of the Democratic National Committee By order : ROBT. M. McLANE, Chairman.

The Markets.

Yorkville Markets.-Wholesale Prices. JANUARY 17.

Cotton .- Owing to the severe weather nothing has been done in this as well as other wagon trade for the past ten days. We are therefore unable to report any transactions. The latest news from Liverpool quotes cotton drooping, which would tend to put the article down here. Flour .- The demand continues good at the following rates: For sacks, $3.50@$3.75; for barrels, Grain.—The demand for all kinds of grain is buoyant at the following rates: Wheat $1.50; Peas 62½; Corn 60; Oats 37½.

Columbia Market.

JANUARY 14. Cotton .- Our report for the week ending on the 6th inst., closed on a good demand for the article, at full and firm prices, with a feeling decidedly in favor of sellers. The week just brought to a close opened with the same good feeling and active demand, and up to Tuesday evening prices were very full and firm. On Wednesday morning one week's later advices from Liverpool were received, reporting an advance of &@ld in the early part of the week, (this by the despatch;) the second, however, stated the market dull, with a downward tendency, and a dull demand at former quotations. These accounts, although somewhat contradictory, had a favorably effect on prices in our market, and as we stated in our and Henry C. Bodenhamer, defendants, reside withreport of the following day, prices advanced \$@\delta conformer quotations, bringing fair cotton up fully to 9\delta c. During the three last days of the week the market dragged heavily, and owing to the inclemency of the weather the receipts were light and the demand dull. The sales of the week comprise about 800 bales, and we now quote: Inferior $8@8\frac{1}{4}$; ordinary $8\frac{5}{6}@8\frac{1}{4}$; middling $8\frac{5}{6}@8\frac{3}{4}$; fair $8\frac{7}{6}@9\frac{1}{5}$; and choice 93-16@91c.

Bacon .- The demand for bacon is flat and prices are looking down. We now quote for hog round, by the quantity, 124@134; sides 13; and hams 13 @141c, according to the qulity of the article. Corn .- In consequence of the great severity of the weather the supply of this article has been unusually light, consequently prices have advanced 10@ 15c P bushel. We now quote 85@90c P bushel. Peas .- The article of peas is also very scarce, and prices advancing. We now quote 85 @90c 79 bush-

Flour .- We have no quotable change to notice in the price of flour, and we therefore continue to quote $81@$83 for common to good brands; fine family our $9@$91 7 bbl. Fodder .- In consequence of the very severe state of the weather, the supply of fodder on sale has been very light; and consequently prices are very firm. We still quote $11@$11 & 100 fbs.

A CARD. It is perhaps proper, that I should inform the Voters of York District, that I am not a candidate for re-election for the office of Tax-Collector at the ensuing election. Having changed my business, and removed to the country, I cannot in justice to myself, without to some extent sacrificing my private interests, consent to enter the list as a competitor for the office. The same reason would apply, if I should be so fortunate as to be re-elected. I have heard it whispered in certain quarters, that I had withdrawn in favor of a particular candidate in the field. I can only say that such a report is without the slightest foundation. There are a number of aspirants for the office, any of whom would discharge the trust honestly and faithfully and to the entire satisfaction of the District. I repeat it that I am only induced to take this step, because my private affairs imperatively demand it.

I cannot retire, without making some faint acknowledgement of the debt of gratitude I owe my fellow citizens of York District, for their confidence and support. Their promptness in the discharge of their duty, has greatly lightened my labors and rentheir duty, has greatly lightened my labors and rendered my official intercourse with them pleasant and conduct the business of a LIVERY and SALE STABLE in Yorkville. SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES

HESE machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States. The first prize—a gold medal—has recently been awarded to them at the great Exposition at the Palace of indusf superiority.

try in Paris, and thus they have the World's verdict Great improvements have just been added, so that they run without noise, with case to the operator at double the ordinary speed, so that TWICE AS MUCH WORK CAN BE DONE IN A DAY.

The greatest clothing and shoe manufacturing establishments in the country use these machines exclusive.

clusively. They are competent to perform every sort of work in the most perfect atyle. As there are very great numbers of inferior or entirely worthless sewing machines of the Lerow & Blodget, Avery, Wilson, Grover & Baker, and other patents, which have been sold, but cannot be used to any advantage, we hereby offer to receive all such machines, and also unimproved ones of our own man-ufacture, in exchange for new and latest improved ma-chines, on liberal terms. All old machines thus obtained by us will be broken up and destroyed. For particulars apply by letter or personally at our New N. B.-Local Agents wanted to make sales of our improved sewing machines. To persons properly qualified for the business, a rare opportunity for profitable and pleasant employment is offered.
